Framework for Positive Collaboration
Transition Team

After prayerful consideration, we – the members of the Transition Team of Abingdon Baptist Church – do now in the presence of God and our congregation enter the following sacred covenant with each other.

We seek the Spirit’s guidance by opening all meetings with bible reading and prayer
Our relationships show love for each other
We practice honest, respectful, and open communication
We laugh often and have lots of fun
We listen with our ears, eyes, and hearts...carefully considering everyone’s thoughts
We trust that each person has a positive intention in what they do or say and we seek to understand and affirm that positive intent
We highly value individual participation that results in team consensus
We stay focused by following through on the Intentional Interim Ministry process to its completion
We value the past when it helps us live into God’s preferred future
We focus on solutions rather than problems or issues
Each of us prioritizes Transition Team commitments, loyalty to each other, and team work
We promise to be honest and open with the congregation at all times

We – the congregation of Abingdon Baptist Church – commit to Pray that God will guide you and bless your work
Support the Intentional Interim process in every possible way until it is complete
Show patience and maturity with one another and with the team
Participate whole-heartedly in congregational events planned by the Transition Team
Focus our attention on the good things that are happening at ABC
We will pray for you every day; we will pray for your health and well being; we will pray for your families and friends; we will pray that God gives you wisdom and strength; we will pray that your lives will overflow with joy.

COMMISSIONING PRAYER:
Lord Jesus, on this very special morning, we gather around a very special team of people who we are asking to lead Abingdon Baptist Church.
We empower them to plan and collaborate in healthy ways. We know that the key to their success is in their relationships with each other. Help them to speak honestly and to listen attentively. Help them to laugh and have fun while keeping their eyes on you. Cultivate in them a genuine love for one another. And, Lord, let those same blessings spread to us.
May the Transition Team be focused on your powerful presence and rich promises. May they help us transcend things that divide; rather, like our ancestors, may we unite around a bold vision of making a difference in Abingdon and Washington County, the state of Virginia and the world. May we do so with the love of God.

The hospital released Rori Friday afternoon and she is enjoying being pampered! We’d like to thank Pastor Mike and our Abingdon Baptist Church family, for your prayers, phone calls, and visits. Rori would also like to say a special thank you to Donna Abel, who not only served as her Recovery Nurse, but also provided her with a tour of the Short-Stay Department to help alleviate her fear of surgery. Blessings, Alana Simmons
