IMPACT MISSIONS 2025

Impact Missions Week is sponsored each year by our Baptist General Association of Virginia (BGAV). It is a powerful time when youth and adults from across Virginia gather to serve families. This year, Impact Camp is happening in Southwest VA. Impact is not only a ministry of construction but also of compassion, encouragement, and Gospel witness. We have 14 active work sites and over 125 youth and 30 adults giving a full week of their summer to serve others in the name of Jesus. You can see below a list of the work sites and projects being completed through Impact this week.

1. McCann Rd, Damascus – New Roof
2. Chestnut Mountain Rd, Damascus – Painting; Handrails
3. Adkins St, Damascus – Drywall; Flooring
4. St. Claire Creek Rd, Chilhowie – Drywall
5. Jeb Stuart Highway, Damascus – Frame; Drywall
6. One Way Ministries, Damascus – Framing
7. Taylors Valley Rd, Damascus – Deck Painting
8. Loves Mill Rd, Glade Spring – Frame; Drywall
9. Jeb Stuart Highway, Damascus – Deck
10. Pearl Ave, Marion – Drywall
11. Sundance Rd, Bristol – Ramp
12. Whitt Street, Bristol – Ramp
13. Nicholas Street, Abingdon – Ramp
14. Reedy Creek Rd, Bristol – Ramp

Our Lebanon Baptist Association (LBA) churches are feeding the Impact volunteers at their worksites each day this week. Pastor Bill and other LBA volunteers are delivering these meals. Shawn and Alpine Motel, the band he is part of, are playing for nightly worship at the Impact headquarters at South Holston High School this week. Please be in prayer for the Impact this week will have on the lives of homeowners, youth, adults, and those involved. Pray for safety and for God to be glorified in all that is said and done.
